

Special Announcement!!

For all those folk who have been patiently waiting to see our Dtps Bribie Q150, this is to inform you that we now have several in flower -and it is a beauty!!!

So if you would like to be one of the select folk to own one of our Dtps Bribie Q150 orchids, we will be holding a 'Silent Auction' of 1 (one) only of this special orchid at our Q150 October Orchid Bonanza. This will be your only opportunity this year to obtain one of these beautiful orchids as they have not been released for sale to the public.

All you have to do is to come to the Bribie Island State High School during the weekend of Saturday 10th and Sunday 11th October to the Q150 October Orchid Bonanza and place your bid in the box provided and hope your offer will be the winner. The successful bid will be announced at Presentation of Awards at 2.30pm on Sunday 11th October.

Alternatively, if you live too far away to be able to join us and would like the opportunity to submit a bid, please contact me by 5.00pm on FRIDAY 9TH OCTOBER 2009 and I will place a bid for you. Just send me your NAME, TELEPHONE NUMBER and AMOUNT and I will do the rest.

And the lucky winner is – Carolyn Macqueen

Congratulations Carolyn – we wish you many years of beautiful blooms.
